About this workshop. . .

This one-day workshop, addresses the necessary skills needed to create a more inclusive environment in today's fast-changing and diverse world. The presenter will creatively explore how individuals and groups can welcome people of diverse backgrounds and experiences where no one person or group is disadvantaged. Using theology and cultural anthropology, Eric will address the dynamics and processes that enhance and hinder competent leadership, respectful communication, and genuine transformation in multicultural settings. Come and experience the vitality of an internationally known professional consultant in the area of multicultural leadership and organizational development. This workshop will deepen your self-awareness and your appreciation of differences in our global society.

About the Presenter. . .
